11 on the authority or approval of the Secretary of the Air 12 Force, and such expenses may be accounted for solely on his 13 certificate, $30,787,000.

14 TITLE VI—GENERAL PROVISIONS

15 SEC. 601. During the current fiscal year, the Secretary
16 of Defense and the Secretaries of the Air Force, Army, 17 and Navy, respectively, if they should deem it advantageous 18 to the national defense, and if in their opinions the existing 19 facilities of the Department of Defense are inadequate, are 20 authorized to procure services in accordance with section 21 15 of the Act of August 2, 1946 (5 U. S. C. 55a), but 22 at rates for individuals not in excess of $50 per day, and to 23 pay in connection therewith travel expenses of individuals, 24 including actual transportation and per diem in lieu of 25 subsistence while traveling from their homes or places of

1 business to official duty station and return as may be 2 authorized by law: Provided, That such contracts may be 3 renewed annually.

4 SEC. 602. Section 3648, Revised Statutes, shall not 5 apply, in the case of payments made from appropriations
6 contained in this Act, (1) to payments made in compliance
7 with the laws of foreign countries or their ministerial regu-8 lations, (2) to payments for rent in such countries for such 9 periods as may be necessary to accord with local custom, 10 or (3) to payments made for tuition.

11 SEC. 603. During the current fiscal year, provisions of 12 law prohibiting the payment of compensation to, or employ-13 ment of, any person not a citizen of the United States shall 14 not apply to personnel of the Department of Defense.

15 SEC. 604. No part of any appropriation contained in 16 this Act for pay and allowances of military personnel shall 17 be used for any other purpose.

18 SEC. 605. The appropriations in this Act otherwise 19 available for travel or transportation which are current on 20 date of relief from duty station of personnel traveling under 21 orders may be charged with all expenses in connection with 22 such travel including transportation of dependents and house-23 hold goods, regardless of time of arrival at destination of 24 such personnel.

25 SEC. 606. Appropriations contained in this Act avail-

1 able for travel shall not be available for expenses incident
2 to attendance at meetings of technical, scientific, professional, 3 or other similar organizations without the approval of the 4 Secretary of the Department concerned.

5 SEC. 607. No part of any money appropriated in this 6 Act shall be expended for the payment of any commission 7 on any land purchase contract in excess of 2 per centum of 8 the purchase price.

9 SEC. 608. Such military and naval personnel as may be 10 detailed for duty with agencies not a part of the Department 11 of Defense on a reimbursement basis may be employed in 12 addition to the numbers otherwise authorized and appropri-13 ated for.

14 SEC. 609. No collection or reclamation shall be made 15 by the United States on account of any money paid to 16 assignees, transferees, or allottees, or to others for them, 17 under assignments, transfers, or allotments of pay and allow-18 ances made under authority of law where liability might exist 19 with respect to such assignments, transfers, or allotments or 20 the use of such moneys, because of the death of assignors, 21 transferors, or allotters.

22 SEC. 610. Appropriations contained in this Act shall 23 be available for insurance of official motor vehicles in foreign 24 countries, when required by laws of such countries; pay-25 ments in advance of expenses determined by the investigat-

1 ing officer to be necessary and in accord with local custom
2 for conducting investigations in foreign countries incident
3 to matters relating to the activities of the department con-
4 cerned; reimbursement of General Services Administration
5 for security guard services for protection of confidential files;
6 examination of estimates of appropriations and Department
7 of Defense activities in the field and the use of such appro-
8 priations for such purpose shall be subject only to regulation 9 by the standing committees concerned; and all necessary
10 expenses, at the seat of government of the United States
11 of America or elsewhere, in connection with (1) instruc-12 tion and training, including tuition, specifically approved by 13 the Secretary of the Department concerned and not other-14 wise provided for, of civilian employees, and (2) communi-
15 cation and other services and supplies as may be necessary
16 to carry out the purposes of this Act: Provided, That no
17 appropriation contained in this Act, and no funds available 18 from prior appropriations to component departments and 19 agencies of the Department of Defense, shall be used to pay 20 tuition or to make other payments to educational institutions 21 in connection with the instruction or training of file clerks, 22 stenographers, and typists receiving, or prospective file
23 clerks, stenographers, and typists who will receive compen-
24 sation at a rate below the minimum rate of pay for positions

1 allocated to grade GS-5 under the Classification Act of 2 1949, as amended.

3 SEC. 611. The appropriations contained in this Act for 4 the Air Force, Navy, and for the Army, which are available
5 for the procurement or manufacture of supplies, materials, 6 and equipment of special or technical design may be used for 7 the development and procurement of gages, dies, jigs, and 8 other special aids and appliances, production studies, factory 9 plans, and other production data, including specifications and 10 detailed drawings, and for the purchase of designs, processes
11 and manufacturing data, copyrights and letters patent, appli-12 cations therefor, and licenses thereunder pertaining to such 13 supplies, equipment, and materials for which the appropria-14 tions are made.

15 SEC. 612. Any appropriation available to the Air Force, 16 Army, or the Navy may, under such regulations as the Sec-
17 retary concerned may prescribe, be used for expenses incident 18 to the maintenance, pay, and allowances of prisoners of war, 19 other persons in Air Force, Army, or Navy custody whose 20 status is determined by the Secretary concerned to be similar 21 to prisoners of war, and persons detained in such custody
22 pursuant to Presidential proclamation.

23 SEC. 613. During the current fiscal year, without de-
24 posit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States

1 and withdrawal on money requisitions, receipts of public
2 moneys from sales or other sources by officers of the Depart-3 ment of Defense on disbursing duty and charged in their 4 official accounts, except receipts to be credited to river
5 and harbor and flood-control appropriations, may be used 6 by them as required for current expenditures, all necessary 7 bookkeeping adjustments of appropriations, funds, and ac-
8 counts to be made in the settlement of their disbursing 9 accounts.

10 SEC. 614. The Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of 11 the Air Force, and the Secretary of the Navy are authorized 12 to expend out of the appropriations in this Act available 13 for construction or maintenance such amounts as may be 14 required for minor construction (except family quarters), 15 conversion of and extensions to existing structures, and im-16 provements, at facilities of the Department concerned, but 17 the cost of any project authorized under this section which 18 is not otherwise authorized shall not exceed $50,000, except 19 that the limitation on the cost of any such project which is 20 determined by the Secretary of Defense to be urgently 21 required in the interests of national defense, shall not exceed 22 $200,000: Provided, That the cost limitations of this sec-
23 tion shall not apply to amounts authorized to be expended 24 for emergency expenses on the approval of the Secretary

1 concerned: Provided further, That the cost of converting 2 existing structures to family quarters pursuant to the au-
3 thority contained in this section shall not exceed $50,000 4 during the current fiscal year at any single facility of the 5 Department concerned.

6 SEC. 615. During the current fiscal year, appropria-7 tions contained in this Act (except those for liquidation of 8 prior contract authorizations) shall not be obligated for con-9 struction of family quarters for personnel at a cost per family 10 unit in excess of $14,040 on housing units for generals; 11 $12,040 on housing units for majors, lieutenant colonels and 12 colonels, or equivalent; $11,040 on housing units for second 13 lieutenants, lieutenants, captains, and warrant officers, or 14 equivalent; or $10,040 on housing units for enlisted person-15 nel, except that when such units are constructed outside the 16 continental United States or in Alaska, the average cost per 17 unit of all such units shall not exceed $25,850 and in no
18 event shall the individual cost exceed $35,000. The last pro-
19 viso of section 3 of the Act of June 12, 1948 (Public Law 20 626), and the last proviso in the next to last paragraph of 21 section 3 of the Act of June 16, 1948 (Public Law 653), 22 shall not be applicable to appropriations made herein or 23 heretofore to carry out such Acts, in cases where the Secre-
24 tary of the Department concerned determines that the erec-

1 tion of prefabricated family quarters will be more advan-
2 tageous to the United States than multiple type dwellings of 3 conventional construction.

4 SEC. 616. Appropriations for the Air Force and the 5 Army for the current fiscal year shall be available for expenses 6 in connection with the administration of occupied areas; for 7 distribution of trophies and devices as authorized by law;
8 for actual and necessary expenses or per diem in lieu thereof 9 authorized by law; and, except as otherwise authorized by 10 the Act of September 30, 1950 (Public Law 874), for 11 primary and secondary schooling for dependents of military 12 and civilian personnel of the Department of Defense residing 13 on military installations or stationed in foreign countries in 14 amounts not exceeding an average of $200 per student, 15 when the Secretary of the Department concerned finds that 16 schools, if any, available in the locality, are unable to pro-17 vide adequately for the education of such dependents.

18 SEC. 617. Appropriations for the Navy for the current 19 fiscal year shall be available for expenses including those 20 heretofore incurred incident to the operation by the Navy of 21 private plants taken over at the direction of the President, 22 and the Secretary of the Navy may designate any naval 23 appropriation to be charged with such expenses, proper 24 adjustment to be made on the basis of final costs between 25 applicable appropriations; payment of rewards, as author-

1 ized by law, for information leading to the discovery of 2 missing naval property or the recovery thereof, and except 3 as otherwise authorized by the Act of September 30, 1950 4 (Public Law 874), for contributions for the support of 5 schools for dependents of military and civilian personnel of 6 the Department of Defense as authorized by section 13 of 7 the Act of August 2, 1946 (5 U. S. C. 421d).

8 SEC. 618. No part of any appropriation contained in this 9 Act shall be used directly or indirectly except for tem-
10 porary employment in case of emergency, for the payment
11 of any civilian for services rendered by him on the Canal
12 Zone while occupying a skilled, technical, clerical, ad-13 ministrative, executive, or supervisory position unless such 14 person is a citizen of the United States of America or of 15 the Republic of Panama: Provided, however, (1) That, 16 notwithstanding the provision in the Act approved August 17 11, 1939 (53 Stat. 1409), limiting employment in the 18 above-mentioned positions to citizens of the United States 19 from and after the date of approval of said Act, citizens of 20 Panama may be employed in such positions; (2) that at 21 no time shall the number of Panamanian citizens employed 22 in the above-mentioned positions exceed the number of citi-
23 zens of the United States so employed, if United States 24 citizens are available in continental United States or on the 25 Canal Zone; (3) that nothing in this Act shall prohibit

1 the continued employment of any person who shall have 2 rendered fifteen or more years of faithful and honorable 3 service on the Canal Zone; (4) that in the selection of per-4 sonnel for skilled, technical, administrative, clerical, super-5 visory, or executive positions the controlling factors in fill-6 ing these positions shall be efficiency, experience, training, 7 and education; (5) that all citizens of Panama and the 8 United States rendering skilled, technical, clerical, adminis-
9 trative, executive, or supervisory service on the Canal Zone
10 under the terms of this Act (a) shall normally be employed 11 not more than forty hours per week, (b) may receive as 12 compensation equal rates of pay based upon rates paid for 13 similar employment in continental United States plus 25 14 per centum; (6) this entire section shall apply only to per-15 sons employed in skilled, technical, clerical, administrative, 16 executive, or supervisory positions on the Canal Zone
17 directly or indirectly by any branch of the United States
18 Government or by any corporation or company whose stock
19 is owned wholly or in part by the United States Govern-
20 ment: Provided further, That the President may suspend 21 from time to time in whole or in part compliance with this 22 section if he should deem such course to be in the public 23 interest.

24 SEC. 619. Insofar as practicable, the Secretary of De-25 fense shall assist American small business to participate

1 equitably in the furnishing of commodities and services
2 financed with funds appropriated under this Act by making 3 available or causing to be made available to suppliers in the 4 United States, and particularly to small independent enter-5 prises, information, as far in advance as possible, with respect 6 to purchases proposed to be financed with funds appropriated 7 under this Act, and by making available or causing to be 8 made available to purchasing and contracting agencies of 9 the Department of Defense information as to commodities
10 and services produced and furnished by small independent 11 enterprises in the United States, and by otherwise helping 12 to give small business an opportunity to participate in the 13 furnishing of commodities and services financed with funds
14 appropriated by this Act.

15 SEC. 620. During the current fiscal year, commuted
16 rations for enlisted personnel of the uniformed services
17 (as defined in the Career Compensation Act of 1949) 18 on leave, or otherwise authorized to mess separately, shall be 19 equivalent to the cost of the ration as determined by the 20 Secretary of Defense.

21 SEC. 621. No appropriation contained in this Act
22 shall be available for expenses of operation of messes (other 23 than organized messes which are financed principally from 24 nonappropriated funds) at which meals are sold to officers or 25 civilians except under regulations approved by the Secretary

1 of Defense, which shall (except under unusual or extraor-
2 dinary circumstances) establish rates for such meals suffi-3 cient to provide reimbursement of operating expenses and 4 food costs to the appropriations concerned: Provided, That,
5 for the purposes of this section, payments for meals at the 6 rates established hereunder may be made in cash or by deduc-7 tions from the pay of civilian employees.

8 SEC. 622. No part of any appropriation contained
9 in this Act shall be available until expended unless expressly 10 so provided elsewhere in this or some other appropriation 11 Act.

12 SEC. 623. No part of any appropriation contained
13 in this Act shall be available for or on account of the supply 14 or replacement of table linen, dishes, glassware, silver, and 15 kitchen utensils for use in the residences or quarters of officers 16 on shore (other than for field messes, messes temporarily set 17 up on shore for bachelor officers and officers attached to sea-18 going or district defense vessels, to aviation units based on 19 seagoing vessels, to the fleet air bases, to the submarine bases, 20 or to landing forces and expeditions), except in accordance 21 with regulations approved by the Secretary of Defense, which 22 shall provide for uniform practices among all of the services.

23 SEC. 624. The provisions of the Act of February 24 9, 1946 (60 Stat. 3), shall be applicable to the appropria-25 tions of the Army and Air Force for military pay for the

1 current fiscal year, upon certification by the appropriate 2 agency of the department concerned.

3 SEC. 625. Not more than $10,000,000 of the amounts 4 received during the current fiscal year by each of 5 the Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force as 6 proceeds from the sale of scrap or salvage materials, shall 7 be available during the current fiscal year for expenses of 8 transportation, demilitarization, and other preparation for 9 sale or salvage of military supplies, equipment, and matériel:
10 Provided, That a report of receipts and disbursements under 11 this limitation shall be made quarterly to the Committees
12 on Appropriations of the Congress.

13 SEC. 626. During the current fiscal year, the Presi-
14 dent may exempt appropriations, funds, and contract 15 authorizations, available for military functions under the 16 Department of Defense, from the provisions of subsection
17 (c) of section 3679 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, 18 whenever he deems such action to be necessary in the 19 interest of national defense.

20 SEC. 627. No appropriation contained in this Act
21 shall be available in connection with the operation
22 of commissary stores of the agencies of the Depart-23 ment of Defense for the cost of purchase (includ-24 ing commercial transportation in the United States to 25 the place of sale but excluding all transportation outside the

1 United States) and maintenance of operating equipment and 2 supplies and for the actual or estimated cost of utilities as 3 may be furnished by the Government and of shrinkage, 4 spoilage, and pilferage of merchandise under the control of 5 such commissary stores, except as authorized under regula-
6 tions promulgated by the Secretaries of the military depart-7 ments concerned, with the approval of the Secretary of 8 Defense, which regulations shall provide for reimbursement 9 therefor to the appropriations concerned and, notwithstand-
10 ing any other provision of law, shall provide for the adjust-11 ment of the sales prices in such commissary stores to the 12 extent necessary to furnish sufficient gross revenue from sales 13 of commissary stores to make such reimbursement: Provided,
14 however, That under such regulations as may be issued 15 pursuant to this section all utilities may be furnished without 16 cost to the commissary stores outside the continental United 17 States and in Alaska.

18 SEC. 628. No part of any appropriation contained
19 in this Act shall be used to pay the salary or wages
20 of any person who engages in a strike against the Govern-
21 ment of the United States or who is a member of an organi-
22 zation of Government employees that asserts the right to 23 strike against the Government of the United States, or who 24 advocates, or is a member of an organization that advocates, 25 the overthrow of the Government of the United States by

1 force or violence: Provided, That for the purposes hereof
2 an affidavit shall be considered prima facie evidence that 3 the person making the affidavit has not contrary to the pro-
4 visions of this section engaged in a strike against the Gov-
5 ernment of the United States, is not a member of an organi-
6 zation of Government employees that asserts the right to 7 strike against the Government of the United States, or that 8 such person does not advocate, and is not a member of an 9 organization that advocates, the overthrow of the Govern-10 ment of the United States by force or violence: Provided 11 further, That any person who engages in a strike against 12 the Government of the United States or who is a member
13 of an organization of Government employees that asserts 14 the right to strike against the Government of the United 15 States, or who advocates, or who is a member of an organi-16 zation that advocates, the overthrow of the Government of 17 the United States by force or violence and accepts employ-18 ment the salary or wages for which are paid from any appro-
19 priation contained in this Act shall be guilty of a felony 20 and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $1,000
21 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both: Pro-
22 vided further, That the above penalty clause shall be in 23 addition to, and not in substitution for, any other provisions 24 of existing law.

25 SEC. 629. No part of any money appropriated in

1 titles II, III, IV, or V of this Act shall be expended under 2 any contract (other than a contract for personal services)
3 entered into after the enactment of this Act unless such 4 contract provides—

5 (1) that the Government may, by written notice
6 to the contractor, terminate the right of such contractor
7 to proceed under such contract if it is found, after notice
8 and hearing, by the Secretary of the military department 9 with which the contract is made, or his designee, that 10 gratuities (in the form of entertainment, gifts, or other-11 wise) were offered or given by such contractor, or any 12 agent or representative of such contractor, to any officer 13 or employee of the Government with a view toward 14 securing a contract or securing favorable treatment with 15 respect to the awarding or amending, or the making of 16 any determinations with respect to the performing, of 17 such contract: Provided, That the existence of the facts 18 upon which such Secretary makes such findings shall 19 be in issue and may be reviewed in any competent court,

20 (2) that in the event any such contract is so termi-
21 nated the Government shall be entitled, (A) to pursue 22 the same remedies against the contractor as it could 23 pursue in the event of a breach of the contract by the 24 contractor, and (B) as a penalty in addition to any

1 other damages to which it may be entitled by law, to 2 exemplary damages in an amount not less than three 3 nor more than ten times (as determined by the Secre-4 tary or his designee) the costs incurred by any such 5 contractor in providing any such gratuities to any such 6 officer or employee.

7 SEC. 630. No funds appropriated in titles II, III, 8 IV, and V of this Act shall be used for the payment in 9 excess of 500,000 full-time graded civilian employees (in-10 cluding (a) the full-time equivalent of part-time employ-11 ment, (b) persons who are described as "consultants" or 12 who are compensated on a "when actually employed" basis 13 if such persons are employed on a contract basis or are 14 paid on a per diem basis, and (c) persons employed without 15 compensation if they are reimbursed for expenses) at any 16 one time during the current fiscal year.

17 SEC. 631. No part of any appropriation contained
18 in this Act shall be available for the payment of flight pay 19 to personnel whose actual assigned duties do not involve 20 operational or training flights.

21 SEC. 632. No part of any appropriation contained in this 22 Act shall be available for expense of transportation, packing, 23 crating, temporary storage, drayage, and unpacking of house-
24 hold goods and personal effects in excess of seven thousand

1 pounds of uncrated or eight thousand pounds if crated or the 2 equivalent when transportation charges are based on cubic 3 measurement.

4 SEC. 633. Vessels under the jurisdiction of the Depart-
5 ment of Commerce, the Department of the Army, the De-6 partment of the Air Force, or the Department of the Navy 7 may be transferred or otherwise made available without 8 reimbursement to any of such agencies upon the request of 9 the head of one agency and the approval of the agency 10 having jurisdiction of the vessels concerned.

11 SEC. 634. During the fiscal year 1953 no funds appro-12 priated by this Act shall be used for the pay and allow-13 ances of persons assigned to render assistance to generals 14 of the Army, fleet admirals of the Navy, or generals in the 15 Marine Corps, except during periods when such persons are 16 required to assist such officers in performing specific duties 17 assigned by the President, the Secretary of Defense, or the 18 head of the military department concerned.

19 SEC. 635. During the last quarter of the fiscal year 20 1953, no funds appropriated by this Act shall be used for the 21 pay, compensation, or allowances of commissioned officer 22 personnel in excess of percentages of total average military 23 personnel, during such quarter fiscal year, of the Army, Air

- 1 Force, Navy, and Marine Corps, respectively, set forth in 2 this section as follows:

- 3 SEC. 636. No funds contained in this Act shall be 4 used for the purpose of entering into contracts containing 5 article 15 of the Standard Government Contract, which reads
 6 as follows:

7 "DISPUTES.—Except as otherwise specifically provided 8 in this contract, all disputes concerning questions of fact 9 arising under this contract shall be decided by the contracting 10 officer subject to written appeal by the contractor within 11 30 days to the head of the Department concerned or his 12 duly authorized representative, whose decision shall be final 13 and conclusive upon the parties thereto. In the meantime 14 the contractor shall diligently proceed with the work as 15 directed."

- 16 SEC. 637. None of the funds provided in this Act shall be 17 available for training in any legal or business profession nor 18 for the payment of tuition for training in such professions.

1 SEC. 638. Money appropriated in titles II, III, IV, and 2 V, of this Act shall be available for expenditure in the fiscal 3 year ending June 30, 1953, only to the extent that expendi-
4 tures thereof shall not result in total aggregate net expendi-
5 tures of all agencies provided for herein beyond the total 6 of $46,000,000,000.

7 SEC. 639. Funds provided in this Act for public informa-8 tion and public relations shall not exceed $5,254,851.

9 SEC. 640. No part of the funds herein appropriated shall 10 be used to expand the personnel, facilities, or activities of the 11 Department of the Air Force to establish or maintain a 12 separate system for providing such supplies and services as 13 were furnished to the Department of the Air Force by the 14 Department of the Army prior to August 1, 1951.

15 This Act may be cited as the "Department of Defense 16 Appropriation Act, 1953".

Passed the House of Representatives April 9, 1952.

Attest:

RALPH R. ROBERTS,

Clerk.
